Terms and conditions – Nomination

1. Either a fresh nomination or the existing nomination can be changed to a new nominee by the life assured at any time during the term of the policy by an endorsement on the back of the policy.
2. The registration of fresh / change or cancellation of nomination is subject to the receipt of notice and the form by ICICI Prulife.
3. Immediately after executing the cancellation of nomination, the policy form and notice must be sent for registration to our Corporate Address.
4. If the life assured is not conversant with English or is illiterate, the form should be witnessed and the witness needs to certify before such witnessing that the contents of the nomination form were explained by him to the named life assured in vernacular and that the life assured has affixed his signature / thumb impression in his (witness's) presence after thoroughly understanding the same.
5. On assignment of a policy the existing nomination automatically stands cancelled.
6. In case the policy is absolutely assigned to the life assured, then the life assured (assignee)can nominate / change or cancel the nomination effected by him / her earlier.
7. If the nominee is a minor, an appointee must be appointed to whom the moneys secured by the policy shall be paid in the event of the assured's death during the minority of the nominee.
8. A nominee can be added to the existing nominee(s). In case of more than one nominee, a joint discharge voucher would be taken from all the nominees and the claim proceeds would be paid to the nominee authorised by them.
